The off-month supplement of The Moonstone

Province Notes

From the Seneschal: Agendas will now be provided before Province meetings so that the populace will know in advance the topics to be discussed. Minutes from the meetings will be available online in the newsletter. Any notices sent to Col. Christian should be CCed to his deputy Mistress Honig at deputyseneschal@malagentia.org. Jocularitas is the word of the month.

From the Marshal of Fence: There are now two weekly opportunities for rapier combat: Tuesdays at the Sullivan Gym on the USM campus in Portland and Fridays at the Eliot Baptist Church in Eliot. Carpools are in the works to help folks get to practices. For more information on Rapier events, check out the Malagentia Rapier Yahoo Group.

From the Web Minister: Links have been updated on <http://malagentia.eastkingdom.org/> and each department now has a static header block at the top of the page. Officer email addresses have been updated and should now get your correspondence to the proper person. The calendar app on the website has been updated with the most recent Province activities. If you have submissions for the website, email them to malagentia@gmail.com.

From the Herald: The Giggleswick name and device have passed. The online Order of Precedence has been updated. If your entry in the POMP or the Passed Heraldry is incorrect, please contact the Herald.

From the Knight Marshal: Practice is held at Sullivan Gym on the USM Portland campus every Tuesday. Looking ahead, a monthly practice is being considered for Sunday with further details coming. Lord Michael Acrensis has stepped down from the Knight Marshal position and Lord Richard Crowe has stepped in. Malagentia thanks Lord Michael for his long service as Knight Marshal. A Heavy List University is planned for Saturday, April 12 at the Eliot Baptist Church. See the event announcement on page 2 for more details.

From the Mistress of the Lists: If you are in need of reauthorization cards, need a new authorization card or need to add new weapons to your card, contact the Mistress of the Lists. Lady Wynefryd is not usually at the Tuesday practice, but arrangements can be made if she is contacted in advance.

From the Quartermaster: The Malagentian stores are in a facility that has 24 hour access, but no lights inside the storage shed. Also, the supplies spreadsheet is available on the Malagentian website or through the links in the Winter 2014 Moonstone. If anyone needs access to the supplies, arrangements can be made to get the keys as Speedbump will be out of commission for a while. The people of Malagentia wish him and his foot a speedy recovery.

From the Chronicler: Deadline for the Spring issue of the Moonstone is April 5. The theme is the camping season but submissions on any topic are welcome. Please contact Christiana if you have questions or would like to submit art, photos, or articles.

From the Archery Captain: Winter. Closed. Waiting. Arrow and bolt workshop being planned. Archery marshal reports are due March 30 and should go to Lady Adrienne d'Evreaux at archer.north@eastkingdom.org

From the Chancellor Minor: Plans for GNEW kids & family activities are in the works.

From the Exchequer: Receipts must be received no later than two weeks after the event to be reimbursed for event expenses. Ideally, receipts should be given to the Exchequer by the end of the event. Due to scheduling conflicts, Lady Tiernan will only be available at the March, May, June and November Province meetings. Other arrangements can be made if necessary.

From the Chatelaine: Plans to update Gold Key are the goal for this year. If you have garb that is in decent shape that you no longer need, please consider donating it to Gold Key. The demo at Port Con will happen again this June. Stay tuned for more details.

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences: The first Bardic Brunch was a success and a second is planned for March 16 in

Malagentian Mayhem

Wynefryd Bredhers received her Award of Arms at Market Day at Birka.

Lady Beatrice Buontalenti da Firenze received her Master Bowman badge at Birka. She is also now an Archery Marshal.

Lady Mikel von Salm received her Grandmaster Bowman badge at Birka.

At that same event, Col. Christian Woolfe received a writ inviting him to join the Order of the Pelican. His vigil and ascension will be held at King's and Queen's Rapier Championship in Barony Beyond the Mountain on March 29.

Lady Ro Honig von Sommerfeldt was made a peer of the Order of the Laurel at Market Day at Birka for her exemplary work as a scribe of the East.

Baroness Mylisant Grey was inducted into the Order of the Pelican at Maker's Faire in Carolingia for her dedicated service to the East.

Lord Lucian de Wyntere is now an Archery Marshal.

Lord Michael Acrensis has stepped down as Malagentian Knight Marshal after 10 on-and-off years in the position.

Lord Richard Crowe is the new Knight Marshal of Malagentia.

Portland, from 11 to 2 sharp. The bards are working towards a performance product for GNEW and are working on poetry, improve, puppetry, etc. The Bardic Brunch is open to everyone interested in the bardic arts. It is an active workshop where people can perform projects or works-in-progress in a safe and constructive space. Brunch is pot luck, so please bring something to share. Brunch is hosted at a no-shoes house. For more details and directions to the next Bardic Brunch, please join the Malagentia Bardic Group on Facebook.

Dance Practice is held the third Thursday of the month from 7:30 to 9 at Acorn Studio in the Dana Warp Mill in Westbrook.

Sporadic Band Practices still happen although practice space is an issue. See the Malagentia website, Yahoo Group or Facebook for announcements.

The scribes will begin holding workshops in March. The first scribal workshop will be on a Monday still to be determined, and will likely be at Bartlett Cottage in Gorham. More details will be posted on the Malagentia Yahoo Group and Facebook page as they become available. An unofficial Facebook page has been started for those interested in the Scibal Arts and is currently called Scriptorium Malagentian until something more properly Latin can be translated.

Stitch-N-Bitches are being held in the Lewiston area on a regular basis. Check the Malagentia Facebook group for time and place.

Lady Camille would like everyone hosting an A&S type event to send her a report about it for her records. These reports don't need to be any more complicated than what the event was and when it happened and should be emailed to artsandsciences@malagentia.org.

In Other Business

The 2014 budget for the Province of Malagentia was brought to vote and passed. There were no votes against and one vote abstaining, although that may have been in jest.

Sir Marcus Blackaert is the Autocrat for Great Northeastern War 28. GNEW will be held at the Hebron Pines Campground from July 10 to 13. Facilities have been contacted and contracts are expected soon. Marcus is still seeking a Facilities Manager. This position would be an assistant site wrangler in charge of helping to keep an eye on the site to make sure facilities work smoothly. Contact him at marcusblackaert@maine.rr.com if you are interested.

At the urging of legal council, the Board of Directors is proposing the severing of ties with the Chirurgeonate. The Board of Directors seeks comments on the matter through 03/18/2014, which can be directed to comments@sca.org. Additionally, they invite all those interested to send their comments to the Society Chirurgeon (chirurgeon@sca.org).

From Giggleswick

The Riding's name and device have passed and are now registered. Giggleswick is hosting Heavy List University April 12. Spring Winds is May 3. Teachers are needed for anything performance related. Interested parties should contact the Autocrat. Info is on the Kingdom website. Friday Night Fighter practice returns starting on February 21 at the Eliot Baptist Church.

From The North

The proposed Riding of Ravensbridge in the northern region of Malagentia is almost ready to submit their paperwork. There are currently 26 active members and a handful more have recently been added. Proposed officers are Master Kyppyn Kirkcaldy, Seneschal; Edward Midnight, Exchequer; Rose Copper-Steel, Chatelaine; Lord Antony Martin of Sheffield, Herald; Lord Christoff of Swampkeype, A&S Minister.

Classes have been offered in brewing, heraldry, and cooking. Arrangements have also been made with the Augusta police department for outdoor space for a fighting and archery practice come the spring.

The proposed Riding would like to host a demo at the Whatever Festival on Saturday, June 28. More details to come.
