The off-month supplement of The Moonstone

Province Notes

Master Christian's Shenanigans: Bardic bids due October 1. Yule needs bids very soon if it's going to happen this year. No bids have been received yet. Please email contact info for your deputies to Christian. This information will not be shared publicly. If you need to post details about an event to the populace please run it by the event autocrat first and cc the deputy autocrat. Officers – if you are renewing your membership please update Christian with new expiration date. The Word of Month is bivouac.

From the Chatelaine: The demo at Maine Boffer Games was well attended even after Pennsic. Possible A&S class at Weekend Anime in Westbrook. Several demos were cancelled last month because there was not enough notice, but they are in the works for next year. Odelina would like to explore the possibility of creating a demo "core group" that committed to help with demos and teach about how to run a good demo.

From the Chronicler: Check out latest Moonstone, available on the Malagentia website. Earn cookies for articles and artwork! The Fall A&S issue still needs articles and the deadline is October 5.

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences: Music practice happened on September 3 in between baseball innings. GNE was awesome! Malagentia has two new laurels and the Bardic grove made its debut. GNE Bardic got lots of good feedback. Bardic brunch is the third Sunday of the month. Interested persons should check it out on September 21 at the Big House on Brighton. Contact Lord Frederick Van Der Veer for directions. Dance Practice is the third Thursday of each month in the third floor studio of Drouin Dance Center in the Dana Warp Mill. Calligraphy classes are in the works. Singing classes are coming in October. There was a Loom Class on September 14 in Portland lead by Caoillwynn of Brynmyr and Ascelinne de Chambord.

From the Herald: If you submitted names and/or devices at Pennsic, please send Conall a message so that he can begin the tracking process.

From the Web Minister: An update to the links in process. The Malagentia website (www.malagentia.org) and the Yahoo Group are still the official means of communication on the web. Check with Izzo if you need anything posted.

Exchequer: We have money! 1032 people were in attendance at GNEW this year and we made $7100.

From the Knights Marshall: Same bat time, same winter bat channel. We are now back in the gym at the USM Portland campus. Cost to play is $5 and you need to bring an ID.

From the Minister of Fence: Practice is Tuesday at 6 in the gym at the USM Portland campus. Bring $5 and an ID.

From the Archery Captain: Archery happens in Waterboro on Sunday and Gorham on Saturdays. Check the website and Yahoo for official notices.

From the Mistress of the Lists: Lady Wynefryde most likely won't be attending winter practices unless contacted ahead of time. Please submit completed authorization forms for mailing, so she can track them.

From the Quartermaster: A crossbow building class at open bench project coming soon. The UCC Church in Gorham is available for $25 room rental $100 all day. It holds 70ish people and has a kitchen!

In Other Business

Amusing shenanigans are planned for next month. Stay tuned!

Many kingdom level events are on the horizon. If you would like to go, but don't want to go alone or need help with driving and gas, send out a carpooling request to the groups.

Harvest Moon Shoot was a great success. Event report and photos will be in the Autumn Moonstone, available October 15.

Malagentian Mayhem

Congratulations to Aiden on becoming a member of the Order of the Tyger Cub at Pennsic.

At Harper's Retreat, Solveig Bjorndottr bested all others to become the Baronial Bard of Stonemarche.

Those looking for a bit of amusement should try saying "Fairy Princess" to Lord Lucien de Wyntere.

Many thanks go to Lady Wynefryde Bredhers for taking the notes at this months Province meeting. Without her, this newsletter would have been much more problematic.

New Provincial Champions were made at Harvest Moon Shoot on September 13. Congratulations to our new A&S champion, Lady Rose Copper Steele, our new Fencing Champion, Doña Camille des Jardins, our new Bearer of the Heart of Malagentia, Velikail of Deltuva, the new First Shield of Malagentia, Lord Micah of Brighton Manor and the new Bearer of the Horn of Malagentia, Master Maxton Gunn.
