- 4. Cooks Guild – Lydia: Meeting at GNE to the theme of sekanjabins, pickles and hydrating beverages. Friday at 1pm.

- 5. Old Business: Rec'd and accepted a bid for Harvest Moon from Lydia Webbe as Event Steward, Aurelia as Deputy and Frances in charge of dayboard. Will take place on September 13th. Unofficial camping is allowed at this event.
 - a. Let it be known that for the first time in at least a minute, Mat will not be camping on Friday night, due to having other nerd commitments.
 - b. Question from Marie: do people usually camp on Friday to be there early on Saturday? Answer: it varies, more people have been camping on Friday in recent times. Either way, go for it! People are up there.

Pride - Very successful! Approximately 24ish Malagentians were present, some from up north, one from down south. The plan is to participate in reciprocal attendance with Endewearde and potentially other areas next year to help encourage and increase participation.

H&M - It happened! Quite a bit of rain, so no fencing, but there was archery and hang-outs and a general good time had by all.

Demo at the Fort: Great day, hopefully continue to have the opportunity to continue doing this one. A neat opportunity to do event things in a historical fort.

- 6. Other New Business:
 - a. Bids - TRM and TRH are looking for bids for multiple events.

- b. Looking for people to teach at Scribal nights! Usually two hour classes on variable topics, don't need to be a Laurel or official title or anything like that to teach. If you're interested in teaching a class in the next six months, please reach out to Collette to discuss.
- c. Provincial Honours are ready to go! Something to keep in mind as we go into a busy event (cough GNE cough) that people are going to be doing a lot of cool things at ;)

7. Questions? None
